

Mark Brickey is a 1984 graduate of Harriman High School in Harriman, Tenn., and is a 1988 graduate of the University of Tennessee with a B.S. Degree in Accounting. After 20 years in the banking industry, Mr. Brickey and his wife, Jeannie, moved to Guntersville in 2006 when he and his brother purchased Kilpatrick Toyota and changed the name to Sand Mountain Toyota. The Brickeys have three sons, Jeffrey (13), an eighth grader at Guntersville Middle School; Austin (10), a fourth grader at Cherokee Elementary; and Jackson (7), a first grader at Guntersville Elementary School. The Brickeys are members of the Church at Lake Guntersville where Mr. Brickey serves as a Life Group leader, Sunday School Teacher, Trustee, and is member of the Finance Committee. He also serves on the boards of Marshall County Leadership, Christian Women's Job Corp. of Guntersville, Fellowship of Christian Athletes Marshall County Board, and the Apple Foundation. He and his brother, Joe, own Sand Mountain Toyota, where he serves as General Manager and President.