

Scott Bobo is a 1994 graduate of the University of West Alabama with a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science. He is currently the Loss Control and Communications Manager for Marshall-DeKalb Electric Cooperative. Mr. Bobo is recognized as a Certified Loss Control Professional by the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. He is a coordinator for the Alabama Rural Electric Association Youth Tour, as well as the editor for the cooperatives monthly publication, "Alabama Living." Mr. Bobo is a member of the Boaz Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors. He and his wife, Christie, have three daughters, Jaycie, Jayden and Jesslyn.