

Greg Price attended Snead State Community College after completing high school and later graduated from Jacksonville State University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice with a concentration in Forensic Science and a minor in Law Enforcement. He has worked as a police officer with the Douglas and Albertville Police Departments and with the Etowah County Drugs and Major Crimes Task Force. He graduated from the Birmingham School of Law in 2002 and has practiced law in various courts throughout Marshall County and the State of Alabama on matters including criminal, domestic relations, probate, juvenile, business and civil litigation. He is a member of the American Bar Association, Alabama State Bar, Marshall County Bar Association and has recently completed training and applied for registration as a mediator with the Alabama Center for Dispute Resolution in Montgomery. He is also a member of the Albertville, Boaz, and Guntersville Chambers of Commerce and serves on the board of directors with Alzheimer's Services of Marshall County, the City of Albertville Commercial Development Authority, and the Children's Policy Council of Marshall County. Mr. Price has also volunteered with other organizations such as the Alabama State Bar "Wills for Heroes" project, the Marshall County Leadership Challenge, and Marshall County Volunteer Guardianship Program. He is married to Leslie Powell Price, who teaches for the Boaz City Schools. The Prices have two daughters, Kailey (age 7) and Kenedi (age 5). They are members of Mountainboro Missionary Baptist Church in Boaz.